

RUN REPORT RUN 2309.....EVERTON PARK HOTEL

HARES....HANDJOB , EVEN OPTUS & LEECH

If you are having difficulty reading this report it is because it was written with the Hash supplied pencil . I was tempted to say here it that like the GM , there was no lead in it but out of respect for his GMness and respect for my piles , I refrain for doing so.

Small mob turned up but not unusual for the geographically challenged residents from over the creek . Weather might have influenced some of the sugar-coated brigade .

Uneventful start down through the commercial centre then across Trouts Rd and into the wilderness to follow the beautifully concreted banks of Downfall Ck . OPTUS set himself up at a stepdown in the concrete to warn runners of the drop-off and this worked well . However , forethought and consideration for your fellow man can't compensate for youthful exuberance . TINKERBELLE , imbued with the insatiable desire to show his fellow man the way , safely negotiated this obstacle only to fall foul of a concreted stormwater drain outlet a bit further on . We can just imagine the engineering principles and calculations being applied as the earth receded beneath his feet and gravity took effect . It must have all worked as he made a perfect 3-point landing utilising the palms of both hands and one shin on the edge of the concrete culvert . VASO and CATGUT were tempted to retrieve the removed skin to supplement their stocks for the next 12 months .

Once the entertainment was out of the way , the run settled down to safer street running around Stafford Hts eventually to a RG on Redwood St . The wherethefukarwe tribe surfaced here but fortunately Scribe was able to deliver a geography lesson and realign CATGUT's compass . More street adventures , CBs , another RG and then we lost BEST AND LESS and CATGUT indulging in a bit of trail guessing only to meet the rest of the pack as we arrived back at the pub .

WE all hear about slow news days but the circle took this to a new level . BUGS on the ice for being a concerned understanding nice type and feeling concern for the wellbeing of his recently dispersed litter of puppies . Poor OCTOPUSSY was singled out for getting into somebody elses pants and shoes and being a previous clothes horse for the catwalk set . LUFTWAFFE and MULTIPLE CHOICE , where were you when your mates needed you ?
