

Date: 20 July 2015

Hares: Craft and Porno

Venue: Tarragindi Bowls Club

The 2015 Joint Christmas in July run with the Brisbane Harriettes was a well-attended event with about 60 hashers. On arrival, hashers were confronted by an angry Elf Tinkerbell who was protesting about working conditions imposed by Santa. Your scribe Scruffy tried without success to do a runner from GM XXXX when approached to do the run report. At 6:30pm, Harriettes GM Porno called the hashers together for run / walk instructions. About 15 men and 2 women, Zoe and Flush, set off on the run. Got no idea where the walkers went.

Trail master Even Optus provided technical data of the run click on the link <https://connect.garmin.com/modern/course/10257045>. For the "non-techos", the run took the pack via the Tarragindi water storage tank, through local streets and into Tooheys Forrest reserve. Hare Craft failed his duty of care obligations by setting the trail on busy Tooheys Road, however no reported deaths or injuries were made. The trail then proceeded into the back streets of Tarragindi to our starting point at the bowl club on Andrew Road.

The circle was again an entertaining affair, led by Monk Swarmy Royal Screw. Iced were Radar for deifying medical advice by running the trial; Luftwaffa for re-kindling his previous marriage for cheap rent; stand-in Kreepy Crawler for the absent Hoof for taking a wrong turn in outback Queensland and ending up in South Australia only to fill his diesel vehicle with petrol; Irish Joke for being Irish; Monty for trying to flog his no longer needed electric push bike; and SOTW Virgin, self-confessed fine wine and food expert seen buying cheap take-away food.

After run food was good value and raffles organised by Naughty but Nice were great (hint to Mens raffle master) with Multiple Choice cleaning up on the night.

Run: 8/10 – well marked but points deducted for endangering hashers lives.

Circle: 8/10 – up to the high standard entertaining best

Food / Venue: 8/10 – good value and atmosphere
