Splat

Run 2350

Hares: Luftwaffe & Multiple Choice

Location: 580 Mt Gravatt-Capalaba Rd, Wishart

Run start:

North turning to the East

FRBs:

Tinkerbelle, Splat, Handjob, Tweedy, XXXX, Scruffy, Royal Screw, Craft

SCBs:

Everyone else

Incidents:

An early loss of directional aptitude offered no deterrence to a determined pack of FRBs. After a period in injury purgatory, Tweedy made a triumphant return to the pack and sparsely contributed to checking throughout. Craft managed to both lose and find his keys at inopportune times. The Council required an explanation of the pack for vigorously searching for the trail on their building site. Handjob was the pick of the athletes, leading the pack for the bulk of the run.

Scuttlebut:

Embryo continues to be plagued by rumours of taking a second beer.

Quality of run:

Despite a lack of palpable markings overall quality was high, with exploration skills, resourcefulness and determination required for successful completion.

Circle Highlights:

Called were Vaso, Scruffy as Royal Screw and Embryo. Swarmy Screw monk held that Vaso be SOTW for mixing up his funeral days.

On on Food/Beer a 7/10 in a solid above average performance, though the lack of instantaneous satisfaction of hunger and thirst was generally noted.
