

18 July 2016

Run No. 2422 "Xmas in July Joint Run with Harriettes"

Hares = Irish Joke, XXXX & ?

Being a joint run with the Harriettes, it was a late 6:30pm start, to allow the girls time to put the laundry away. The venue was the Lord Stanley Hotel in East Brisbane. I rocked up at the normal time (early), to the sound of crickets chirping in the deserted car-park. But Irish's car was there, so I was sure I was in the right place.

By 6pm however, the numbers were really swelling, with even four members from the lost Brisbane West Hash, including Charcoal. The ladies arrived, in splendid Christmas dress, with one harriette even covered in flashing light bulbs. Good to see most men also making some effort to get into the spirit, with VD in a crotch-less santa-suit, and Beachball dressing in virgin white with tinsel balls around his neck.

whilst I picked up an old half washed out trail on Old Cleveland Rd and ran east to Coorparoo Coles. I eventually gave up and headed for home, picking up Royal Screw and some other stragglers on Main Avenue, and we headed back to the pub along the Norman Creek Bikeway.

Sh!tbags called the circle together, with Beachball immediately placed on a bag of ice in a wheelchair, for obscene remarks directed at the Harriettes. Monk Irish Joke subsequently iced a series of felons, including one harriette. (I can't remember the charges).

By popular vote, SOTW was Beachball.

The “On on” was in the beer garden, with much mirth as the staff announced hasher’s names, as the meals were brought out (although they balked at yelling “F#cknut” over the PA). There were also some excellent raffle prizes organised by the Harriettes.

Run 9 / 10 (Good drink stop!)

Circle 8 / 10

Food 9 / 10

On on

Tinkerbelle