

Run report for Paddington – Run 2437

Runners

JC, craft, grew some, mu, 4x, tinker bell, bugs, Bfc, scruffy, turbo any others

The gathering at the normal venue car park paddo hotel. Hares mortein and zit fessed up to all hills and no flat. So off down the staircase and into Campbell across into Nairn and then left into sack ville all downhill great, no complaints from the pack. Too good to last now uphill and heading towards Suncorp until diverted into finchley. Down to the brewery and suddenly into Milton road. Across into park road tinker bell leading with JC, grewsome, scruffy and other fr turds who completely ballsed up the direction with a check back into cam ford and under the rail bridge through to eagle terrace. Not to be fooled with dodgy arrow directions the pack held an informal regroup at grimes before shunting up and over Milton road to Munro street. Still going out and hills hardly in sight! Big mistake into slade 1 in 1 and up and over into birds wood. Informal re group and tinker bell heads off and looses pack. So on we blunder over and around into Annie street and onon to mrs mortein thank god some downhill but soon back up into hope and into the bush to reach the summit. lost more runners and split the group with just myself and 4xxxx powering onto to the finish. Turbo somehow short cutted. Lots of trick and treating which picked out the perverts in the pack who all got lost amongst the mothers looking after the kids. Circle in the underground car park with stand in monk boxer.

Miscreants included the following

Royal screw for not remembering where he is about to live

Chardarse for being chardarse buying a new 4wd that does not fit into new multi storey car parking without taking out the sprinkler systems

Virgin who advertised the over 60,s asking for all attendees to pay up but all got lost in translation

But the winner was BFC For not singing karaoke in the bar or forgotten how to sing or just plain useless at it

OnOn

Royal Screw