Barebum's Birthday
Hares = Barebum, Minder & Tampon

Barebum's shouting dinner! As per usual, the promise of free food brought a huge pack of hungry hashmen to the North's Bashup Park Club to celebrate Barebum's birthday.

Luffte (GM) got the circle together for the Hares to give the go ahead to start.

The pack took off with the six runners (Tinkerbelle, JC, Even Optus, XXXX, Little Arse Play and Multiple Choice) being outnumbered by 40 walkers.

The pack headed off from North's and the trail was well set with plenty of chalk and early check backs and two ways until we got to Nundah. There the trail while set well, had long straights. Little Arse Play and Multiple dropped back again. We all seemed to get back in a reasonable time for the circle.

Luffte called the circle and there was a few minor misdemeanours including Barebum having to consume a packet of Twisties before golf. The Monk started calling people out for things that they did wrong during the week. This resulted in Twin Tubs having the funniest story for flying to Cairns by Virgin up and Jetstar back costing $39 each way. He then stayed at a luxurious Five Star hotel on the Cairns esplanade but had to pay parking while he was there.

Most people were not aware that Luffte was nearly denied entry to North's due to a disagreement with the management.

By popular vote, SOTW was Twin Tubs.

The "On On" inside North's Devils included a roast meal with veges. Very tasty.
