

Run number 2539 22 October

Paddo Hotel- Hares Moretein & Shitbags

A reported conversation on the day before the run:

Shitbags-"Hey Moretein, where's the run tomorrow?"

Moretein: "you should know-you're setting it!"

Shitbags: "oh fuck!"

As the night arrived , a big crowd gathered under the watchful eyes of Hares, Moretein and Shitbags up on the balcony sipping their 150 lashes as usual.

A surprise guest appearance from Catgut with 1990 hash committee shirt. Brought back memories of the act at the Ballsup that year-"hey big spender" with various hash transvestites including scribe.

Moretein gave us the usual "no hills " bullshit and off we went with 6 runners including Splatt, XXXX, Bugs, Catgut, Scruffy and scribe. Generally not as hilly as previous years as the trail was mostly on the river side of Milton.

With all the travellers back, a big circle with many nominations for SOTW followed. Just a reminder to those who though they got away with it, there were many nominations to carry forward to next week-so bring your wet-suits.

After a resounding hash anthem by Fingers, the business got onto SOTW.

DB was first up for inappropriate conduct at his sons wedding when he allowed an old guest (hashman from Adelaide)to drop his dacks when the song "Eagle Rock" played

Fucknut was up for giving some AGPU strippers Royal Screws private phone number and apparently called him at home with wife next to him.

Catgut for giving up hash years ago because the runs were too short

JC for coming in first and making a 'quiet' complaint that the other runners weren't competitive enough.

Grewsum just for not being nominated for a while

Anf of course-you guessed it , Multiple, for managing to get a job driving buses for the BCC and having the audacity to make his first trip though scribes suburb.

SOTW though went to Fucknut, first hashman to ever beat Multiple Choice.

The onon back to the pub was good-good choice of food, but the beer was expensive.

Run 8

Circle 9

Food etc 7

Onon

JC