

Run report No.2554
Ordinary Memorial Run No. 13
Hares : Mortein & Waste of Time

Undoubtedly our illustrious leader was unaware when allocating this weeks Run / Walk / Circle report that I had been seconded to oversee the administration of pain relief for Barebum`s recovery from recent knee surgery.

After a large dose of pain relief and Barebum fighting through the pain barrier we managed to struggle down to the On On only for me to be set upon by the GM to do a report.

Obviously I am unable to comment on the run or the walk as I was otherwise occupied as Barebum`s carer in the bar.

I suspect the usual suspects such as Splat, Even Optus, Bugs, etc.and the new guy Dougie did the run.

The remainder would have been walkers or retired to the bar.

Mortein did send me a map but unfortunately it was only one dimensional so I assume the trail was flat.

Just to fill in some space i can mention some of the streets such as Caxton, Menzies, Earl, Normanby Tce. for the Ordinary drink, followed by Carraway, Campbell, Patrick and Issac st. just to name a few.

Now to the CIRCLE and here things get a bit blurry ( could have been the pain relief, no sorry that was Barebum )

The Monk sent me a list which is printed below :

Irish Whistle dreaming Yoga
Multiple
Mule interrupting circle
Meatywhore phone
Anchovy
Bugs
Divot
Radar

I have no fucking idea what this list means !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The CIRCLE for me was a bit like Woodstock or Ordinary`s funeral ( If you can remember it you weren`t there )

My only recollection is early in the night before the foggy haze moved in when Mule arrived as the hares were trying to get the run underway and insisting on having 5 or 6 attempts to park his car through the middle of the CIRCLE !!!!!!!

There must have been other contenders for icings maybe relating to the list above.

As the fog clears I see a vision of Mule receiving the Shit of the Week shirt ( I think ) and deservedly so.

I didn't eat, my responsibility as a carer was to return Barebum to the safety of his home and wife therefore I can't rate the food. JC enjoyed somebody's meal though.

Didn`t run or walk so no score there

Circle was Ordinary
