Walk & circle report

A good size pack gathered in the rear car park with visitor, son of Radar, Sonar also in attendance. Radar in his farmer Joe hat assured us that it was a flat run & walk. Ended up being a 3 Klm walk that forced Ron the Bomb & Barebum to turn back when they decided at the top of the hill that if they kept going it would be on their arses all the way down the hill. Miles decided it was a shitty walk & also turned back using Radars borrowed torch.

Our revered GM called the circle together, put shit on poor old visitor Sonar regarding his questionable lineage & handed over to stand in monk Divot who immediately hand passed to Fucknut & Vaso for a medical review of Shitbag's diminishing memory. Divot took over and iced Miles for his shitty walk, Meatihore for drinking the monks piss and Scruffy for his disparaging remarks concerning Sonar's lineage. Bag' received SOW as the heavens opened up and the pack dispersed looking for their $10 meal.

Walk – well laid trail, 1 klm short of preferred distance – 8/10

Circle – 10/10

Tucker – Excellent $10 meal deal – 10/10
