Run No 2585 “Committee Run”

Hares – IRISH JOKE & VD

Location – Brothers St Brendan’s Football Club

Scribe scored the honour of writing the Run Report for the second time this year. Fair enough, share it around. Ice the bastards who haven’t submitted run reports for Run Nos 2578 & 2580.

Great to have a Committee Run with free beer, food, tits and a raffle.

The walk was well marked around the residences and industrial areas of the flood prone Rocklea. Heading off through Kookaburra Park and Fauna Parade park through the back streets to the Rocklea Railway Station and on home via the level crossing. Hashmen must be getting old as the level crossing was closed for a few minutes, no train coming and no one broke the rules to cross against the red lights.

Congratulations to the song writing Monk. Paul Macartney he certainly ain’t. As the song, to the tune of Alouette, methodically moved down the body of his topless assistant the crowd stuck (as predicted) on “swinging tits”. The ensuing verses from “shapely belly” to “nobby (should that be nobbly?) knees was lost on multiple renditions of “swinging tits”

The Monk took over the circle and called out:-

Multiple Choice – who proceeded to read from a concocted BCC report, purportedly banning Anchovies (aka Perfect Pete) from all forms of BCC transport. Bit of a problem for the upcoming Pensioner’s (free transport) Pub Crawl. He may have to Uber it from venue to venue.

Other nominations I cannot remember.

Shit of the Week = Multiple Choice

The raffle master put a lot of effort into the raffle. The tickets were sprayed around like confetti. There were multiple prizes from crap to A Grade. XXXX won a toy for Grandkids and immediately re-donated it. Boxa then won the toy and kept it. Maybe he is going to let his mutts chew on it to shut them up.

The A grade prize was won by Layup. It contained a number of goodies including a bottle of Pepperjack and an educational book – “The Ups and Downs of being a Wife”. Suggest that the GM requests a book review at the next Committee run.

Miscreants such as Vaso, Shitbags, VD, Monty and Twin Tub ambled to the bar hoping that the kind hearted barman would relent and open earlier than the designated 7:00pm.

The latest Hash patients were welcomed - Fingers cheered the missus up by driving himself to Hash, Monty, whose motor bike bit the bitumen again, with a broken leg the result and Twin Tub together with his new best friend – a walking stick, who challenged the medical profession by having a double knee replacement and then moaning about the pain for a few weeks.

Run Score

Run –	No idea
Walk – short but had to get back for the eye candy	7/10
Circle	7/10
Tits	6/10 (actually 5 +1)
Food – Committee provided pizzas.	6/10

The absent Snappy would have really missed the large number of Hawaiian pizzas provided.
