

Run No. 2622

Multiple Choice 60th Birthday Run

Hares : Multiple and Lufty

CB Mott Park Holland Park

6.15 pm and I arrive at Mott Park to find that the lure of free beer and food has seen 31 idiots standing around in bitterly freezing conditions. A large percentage were wearing their Hi Vis Construction jackets with their hands in the pockets.

VD was concerned about social distancing and wore a mask until somebody pointed out you had to wear it over your mouth.

He then placed it over his mouth only to realise the virus could get through the eyeholes.

After words of wisdom from Lufty about the trail and some nonsense regarding a historical site which turned out to be a spot where Multiple was hit on a bike,(I think) the pack headed outbound along Logan Rd. with the runners including Bugs, Scruffy, Royal Screw, Tinkerbelle, Inspector Rex etc.

I crossed Logan Rd. with the walkers and never sighted the runners again. As I crossed Logan road I noticed the huge crucifix on the church opposite Mott Park and thought God I am going to die out here in this weather.

The walkers turned off Logan Rd. into Swain St., Walter St., Crump St., and across to Crown St.

By this time the freezing conditions had numbed my brain and I became totally disoriented and lost touch with the pack.

Following the car lights I managed to find my way back to the main road but was unsure as to which direction was home.

I started walking and came across this huge house and looking through the window I noticed a group of old men wrapped in blankets and being given what looked like hot drinks by female carers in uniform.

As I approached the door I realised the house must be owned by a very wealthy immigrant because there was a big sign saying it was owned by a Mr. Dan Murphy.

I was escorted inside by one of the female carers, given a blanket and offered liquid sustenance. As my body temperature began to stabilise I realised I was with a group of hashmen who had also been brought in from the cold.

God bless you Dan Murphy !!!!!!!!!!!

Joy Oh Joy After a little more sustenance we were able to make our way home.

The On On was an entertaining affair with Multiple and Lufty (the odd couple) providing free food, beer and raffles (A good start for run of the year)

The floor was then handed over to the monk, resplendent in his robe and condom headwear and with his charisma had the crowd in the palm of his hand.

There were several minor icings, one for Vaso which I can't remember, one for yours truly re the stealing of his bell (which I deny). Boxa was next up with a charge of bringing covid 19 to the hash.

Following this Mu was called forward and charged with some sexual offence in that he had to transport some young female somewhere in Indonesia, to avoid detection she had to crouch down under the dash of the car which was a plus for Mu.

After the sharing of bodily fluids the return journey was a carbon of the first. Needless to say Mu was named SOW. Can't believe how much Mu looks like xxxx these days !!!!!

Now to the raffles!!!!

Best raffle I've ever seen, you didn't even need a ticket.

It was like being at the EKKA every child wins a prize.

Thanks Multiple
