

Run Report: Run# 2635

Theme: The 911 Run

Hares: Handjob, Minder & Bugs

Guest hound: CATGUT

Venue: Aspley Leagues Club 29 Kirby Road, Aspley

Getting there @ 5:30 pm I thought I was in the wrong venue- no one was there- not even the Clayfield push!, I drove to the next car park and not a person in sight, back and wait, but who turns up but LAHMA SNAPPY, Finally the mob arrived – complaining of the distance – PEE WEE having travelled 30 km to get there! BUGGS was trying to play his horn.

The GM gave an explanation as to what 9?11 meant- as yanks have got there dates backwards. After the circle dispersed we ran in front of the club a left turn up Strathdale st, where we spied BOXA short cutting across the road a right turn along a drain path yt stopping 4 a piss with BAREBUM and ZAPATTA deep in conversation, then crossing Zillmere rd, where we ran along the drain and the trail crossed the muddy drain with TWINTUBS procrastinating. Meeting up with FUCKNUT, we ran along the riprap surface for a new road come construction site. Finally we came across this new bikeway under construction, now alone with FT, a FT in Georgia place sent us back and we ran on the bike path through thick bush wondering where the fuck we were, Lo and behold we ended up at the back of QUT with not a hound in sight, at a 2 way I lost lost FN who found the trail and sped off, - after this I was on my own. It came out of QUT, crossed Beams rd. Followed path to Balcar st. left turn Nikerie st. left turn Binara st, through the kiddies playground and on a path to beams rd. Ive got an idea MINDER lives around here, a right turn beams rd.

left turn Dorville rd, left turn Zillmere rd – up a fucking hill right turn Hutton st, left turn Lucan ave. and back home to finally see in for a refreshing ale with POOLPULLER

. The rest of the pack must have got lost as I was there for a good beer before TINKERBELLE rolled in.

At the on on CATGUT got a cleansing sample of SNAPPYS paint stripper

TWINTUB read a poem on remembrance day

RIP MILES O TOOL- I enjoyed going on the SCARE's with him, visiting his home at the head near Killarney- a real hashman- sadly missed
