

Run Report Paddington Tavern 16 November 2020-Hares Moretein and Shitbags-the usual Moreshit Run

A huge attendance in the carpark preceded this run. Vaso arrived with his raffle prizes for the night and carefully placed them down in full view of the hashmen in a corner of the parking lot—and then proceeded to mix with all and sundry. Well whats gonna happen to the box?? Sure enough some devious hashmen stole the box and put it around the corner . Vaso was not amused when he learned of its fate.

Bugs blew the horn and the hares gave us the usual bullshit of no hills etc. We headed off through the back of the pub where scribe caught up with Radar who went at great lengths to describe how well he went in the Cycle Qld road race on the weekend through Brisbane city. Came 4th he said in his age group-when I checked it out, there were only 4 in his category—anyway good effort Radar. The walking dead started to spread out as the first steep hill kicked in-even Tweety stopped talking for a minute or so. Poolpuller started heading to the front and lead us around to Park Road where he picked up the real trail across the road and up a lane to Sheehan St—the trail wound its way to Milton Park and Milton Road –Fingers , Tweety, and Radar could see Poolpuller in the distance scrambling across Milton Road and that was the last we saw of him heading back towards the city-the real trail went into the Tennis courts with a few lovelies having a practice hit—more hills came as we headed back to the circle.

GM Verbal addressed the multitude firstly with a minutes silence for our mate Miles O'Tool who passed away exactly a week before.

He will be remember by most of us as a great Hashman, a whinger, and a good bloke. RIP.

Fingers then led the anthem followed by the guy in the Hari Krishner outfit.

A lot of nominations for SOTW but it was overwhelming that Tweety took the award for raving on with a charge on the floor last week that took 30 minutes to deliver and no one really understood what it was about!

The onon- bit expensive compared to what we have been having lately—couldn't see any specials.

However, entertained by the raffle-suggestion, as we don't really need the money this year, how about some better prizes?
