KEONG PARK , STAFFORD

HARES : IRISH JOKE & PHUKNUT

How to wake up a sleepy neighbourhood . Put 30 plus dopey old bastards and visitor HAPPY HOOKER on the footpath talking bullshit and putting shit on each other. Even the Booze Master saw fit to park the drink wagon on the grass.

The Hares appeared separately with PHUKNUT forming the greeting party and IRISH , obviously having done the bulk of the trail setting , appearing with his shirt back dripping dirt and grass . His pre -run comments of something about a fence to be negotiated didn't raise too many fears because if he could do it there wouldn't be much to be feared by the rest of us . OPTUS provided an update on the condition of our Hash mate LEECH in hospital and he received a unanimous " best wishes , mate " .

The Walking Dying were showing signs of stress trying to ascertain the whereabouts of the nearest watering hole . No problems , the Hares had provided for this emergency and provided the Elixir of Life on site at the short walk to the BBQ shed in the park.

Toot of the horn and we are like the bride's nightie , off . BIke paths through the park , across Stafford Rd , more pathways behind ALS , back along the creek and under Shand St to the rest of the park paths and " the fence " . Most went under ...if IRISH could make it nobody else was going to have a problem.

The runners , TINKERBELL , HAPPY HOOKER , CRAFT , OPTUS , BUGS, with MULTIPLE CHOICE and ARSEPLAY running security duties to make sure we all got back safely , beat most of the walkers home .

IRISH was at his happiest showing off his most recent culinary creation with an unpronounceable name but better known as ' sausages in tomato sauce on bread ' while PHUKNUT performed his normal business practice of ripping money off innocent people .

Monk SNAPPY TOM dished out the usual unsubstantiated shit on a few people and the end result was (I think) SHITBAGS justifiably received the dreaded yellow shirt .

SCORE .

RUN.....7/10 . Missed the water tower .

FOOD... 8/10 ..IRISH up to his usual standard .

On ONBUGS

P.S..... Did anybody get rounded up by the Cops cruising the neighbourhood backstreets , obviously alerted by the neighbours ?
