

FUCKING STRAIGHT BUSH TRACK

Run Report # 2657

Hares: Pee Wee and Inspector Rex (alias Romper Stomper)

We all gathered on the banks of the Brisbane River in the Jindalee Pub ready for a great run. However, the boys have done it again. Instead of being a square run they set a fucking triangular run. Obviously they don't know what a curved arrow looks like. As the pack ran FUCKING STRAIGHT along the Brisbane River, the front runners pulled ahead leaving Multiple and LAP stranded in the middle with walkers bringing up the rear. We ran passed the church and thought that the Hares should go in and ask for forgiveness or confess their sins to the Monk.

Shit of the Week: Multiple Choice for disinfecting the ants and cutting the fence in the wrong place (ALL LIES)

Run: 3 (triangles have 3 sides)

Circle: 6 (because it is 2x3 and Multiple got SOW)

Food: 9 (because it is 3 x 3)

On On: Multiple
