

RUN 2659 – 3rd May 2021

RUN Name – Not the sandshoe run

Hares – Tinkerbell and Kreepy Krawly

Venue – Kenmore Tavern

Not a large turnout, probably because it was the Labour Day holiday, but I was happy to slog my way over from McDowall as TB always sets a good run and with KK involved I was hopeful we may visit one of the western suburb brothels (I still carry my size 12 sandshoe just in case).

TB assured us the trail was well marked but we would need a torch (if TB says you need a torch, YOU NEED A TORCH).

The runners set off with TB in pursuit (always nervous when the hare feels he needs to join the run). I think he just wanted the exercise. Off hobbled Even Optus on 1.5 legs closely followed by Inspector Rex and PeeWee, with myself and Bugs not far behind. Up the rear came Little Arse Play and XXXX the omnipresent “stand in man” for members not present.

We started with a little water crossing, which I hoped wouldn't set the tone for the rest of the run. Can't remember where we went but trail was very well marked and took us thru some virgin country including some waterways which involved some perilous, Andes type descents.

At one of the RGs the hares had an arrow marked SCs (you would be wrong if you assumed, like me, that this meant Slow Cu#ts) which was meant to be a Short Cut to avoid a fence and cut 1k off the run. LAP took the SC route but somehow still managed to come in 20 mins late (he is making a habit of this).

I was following IR and after the first 3 CBs he decided to follow the arrow saying “he won't do another CB”, I just shook my head as we hit another CB.

After the last RG we wound up for a good 2k run home which was great, getting home in just under an hour for 6ks.

Rumour has it that former local JC, led walkers Barebum and Twin Tubs on an extra 1 to 2k walk as he believed the run could not possibly follow the RG arrow.....the motto...careful who you follow.

All in all, an excellent run well set by TB and KK.

Can't remember much about the circle except our “stand in man” XXXX was called front and centre again to deputise for Dole Bludger I think. Can't remember any of the charges but JC, Tweety and Mortein were vocal and DB aka XXXX must have been the winner because he got a slurp of Snappy's tawny port.

Meals on offer in the Tavern were varied and well-priced considering it was a public holiday.

Run/Walk 8.75/10

Circle 6/10

On! On! (food) 8/10
