

Be warned:

One should not talk out loud – give - ‘Hare denigrating statements in the pre-circle’.

Result: Nominated for the Run report for the night – Un-impressed!

But wait! ! Enthusiasm!– Ah ha !

- Another chance to show one’s weighty & verbose communications skills – Let Me At It! - Again

RUN 2660 Monday night in the Suburbs! – East Brisbane - South Side!

The Venue: The Lord Stanley Hotel – upper car park

The Hare: DIVOT – Ross Carlson - the man with a past ‘Comb Over’!

The Theme: - ‘The Viking Spirit’

The Run Report by : Dolebludger

Heading for the Run with anticipation / trepidation! – with our mate Twin Tub – as typical hashmen – we made no effort to dress to the theme. - Would other Hashmen make the effort?

Would we see the God Thor (Toke or Thorsten), Orm or Midgard (the Serpent), Ulf or Fenrir (the Wolf) and Bjørn (the Bear). All displaced from Norse Gods at Ragnarök.to appear at the Lord Stanley Car Park was DIVOT currently reading Daniel McCoy’s book The Viking Spirit - an introduction to Norse mythology – or was he running around the website Norse Mythology for Smart People, and was this all a strategy to get old Hashmen to dress up again – ‘April Fool’s day has already passed! But No!

Or

‘Low & behold!’ In the car park – a Winnebago Motorhome/camper – labelled ‘The Viking Spirit’

And our mate DIVOT – wearing his style of Viking helmet – looking like a reject from a bad Nazi Movie Extra Crew. – expanding on his plan to take the bus / his Viking ship - to ‘Cooktown via Melbourne!’

Where are the Vikings? – I look around the Car park -

There was TINKERBELL wearing his ‘look-a-like’ Canberra Raiders Helmet - dressed with his usual participation & commitment - ‘the mild mannered’ schizophrenic approach to Hashing activities.

– No doubt another costume from the large fancy dress wardrobe he maintains.

BOXA with his RSPCA Hash pretenders – he & they dressed accordingly .and

The last sad sight to be seen – MULTIPLE CHOICE with his Helmet of horns - looking like he’d raided the local dairy farm - from the sight of the ‘passive’ looking cow horns on his helmet.

A sad example of the Viking who as DIVOT would call upon – ‘Norsemen on forth - to Rape & Pillage!

The Run Count:- There were some 34 runners /‘walking dead!’ appearing for This Monday Night Run At the Lord Stanley – RUN 2660

The Pre-Run Briefing by DIVOT– was as usual ‘Too much Information!’ and explained his interpretation - with a DIVOT interpreted song & loud endorsement of the “Run Of The Year!” - “Run Of The Year!”

and although present in his ceremonial regalia, we were without our usual exposure to the blessing at the start of the run by the Himalayan Monk – ‘Snappy Tom’ – where was his little seated budda idol statue surrounded by incense clouds

– What’s happening to the BH3 – where’s that COVID international influence! Hawaiian flavour
- Has this year’s COVID HASH term become too too long?!?

The Run: - Moving on from the pre-start briefing – at last! – the start of the run with the announcement ‘Take A Torch!’ -An instruction considered by a few but rejected & perhaps - This should have been a warning!

From the Lord Stanley the trail went up Didsbury Street – along Vulture & down to Stanley Street Hashmen meandering like a ‘bunch of Brown’s Cows’ wandering on both sides of Stanley St LUFTWAFFE & several others trying to commit suicide while ‘J-walking’ to Coorparoo Secondary College entrance to the Norman Creek Bikeway

And off on the Bikeway

‘Ah!’ Time for each individual group of Hashmen to discuss this week’s subject of interest & concern

- Their past conquests! – the State of the COVID Nation –and their individual health problems

Nothing changes on Monday Night

The Trail went around the Coorparoo Junior Aussie Rules Club Fields and onto the back of Curchies fields at Norman Park and eventually with my group – back to the pub

DIVOT did give me a map of the proposed trail - another incentive to get ‘Run of The Year!’ – showing runners to go along Mowbray Park – around Kangaroo Point under the Storey Bridge & back to the Lord Stanley - But who knows where the final runners trail went!

I’m still like most Hashmen these days – part of the “Walking Dead!” brigade – too many aches & pains to extend to too much running – the downside of becoming an aged Hashman!

The Circle: As I won ‘Shit of The Week!’ from last week’s run in absenteeism – thanks to TTUB

And as I was unable, due to a decline in my physical profile - ‘age’, was unable to fill out the Monkey T-Shirt as well as ‘our mate’ MONTY does & the ‘Dead Rat’ Cap that has now become part of the perpetual ‘S.of.W’ costume - now offered weekly to all future ‘S.of.W’ Hashmen nominees.

I can only imagine what the general public think of these weird groups of runners / walking dead mingling in the streets on Monday Nights

Notwithstanding this, I’d would like to raise a personal concern for an outstanding ‘Dickless Supporter’

MRS DIVOT & her well-being! - Getting a call from TTUB asking of her husband DIVOT:

- HAS he a Dongle? & How often goes he use it? – speaks more of ‘Invasion of Privacy!’ than confirming he has the I.T. equipment for TTUB’s preparation for his Annual ANZAC Day Remembrance.

I think I’ll raise this concern with the Dept of Defence & its advocate PUSHUP – Oh! No! – I forgot he’s now retired like most of the BH3 now – That is except SNAPPY & a few of us others! Still keeping the Nation afloat & operating with COVID restrictions & expenditure – A most worthy subject of conversation on any Monday Hash Night! & with potential to cause violence in speech & manner of the participants at any time.

VERBAL DIARRHOEA held court at the Circle with his usual aggressive competency with input from SNAPPY TOM & TWINTUB amongst others – I scored a seat on the Ice with MULTIPLE CHOICE & Others - ‘S.of.W – Shit of The Week’ was once again scored by MULTIPLE CHOICE - announced & story told by his very best mate & ex brother-in-law LUFTWAFFE – This week’s enthralling version – description of Multiple’s prowess with power tools and self-mutilation and damaging his well-tuned body – it sounds as if he used the same training schools as used for his Bus Driving expertise.

The ON-ON: Now here’s a large ‘Tale of Woe!’ – The Lord Stanley’s new App on signing in & ordering drinks and meals from the menu proposed challenges untold to the most intellectual Hashman.

To see BAREBUM perplexed with confusion – BUGS with fits of profanity and other unnamed hashmen throwing their phones while trying to order a beer & their favourite meal was a ‘sight to be seen’ and offered ‘roll around laughter’ - Some got through the App instructions easily – Some were dumbfounded on putting their order in , to discover an SMS Text announcing : ‘Their TAXI will be arriving shortly’ – ‘A real sight to be seen!’ – However on the ‘Up’ side - the ½ price meals on the night were not to be scoffed at!

OVERALL a good Night – much laughter a minute! – Typical Hash Monday Night in Brisbane &

Enough of this run description - now for the BS! RATINGS!

OVERALL for the Run – 9 out of 10

Food – 1 mark off for subjecting old Hashmen to the latest technology in Hotel App. menu ordering

- But Plus ½ mark On for ½ priced meals

Rating for the RUN 2660 - 8 ½

Well done ! DIVOT
