

Run/Circle Report

Run: 2663

Date: 31 May 2021

Run: The "Return of Swami Gupta" Run

Location: Bhalla's Indian Restaurant and Cafe

Hares: Multiple Choice

34 runners/walkers gathered, on the footpath outside the dinner location, in anticipation of Multiple marking a quality trail. Multiple must have picked up on the expectation from the gathered mob because he quickly passed all responsibility for the trail onto Luftwaffe.

If I was a vengeful person, the cool last night of autumn would be an appropriate setting as revenge is a "dish best served cold" – which probably would have been a better choice on the dinner menu.

After darkness descended, 7 runners & 12 walkers hit the pavement – with 15 hashers doing the pub crawl, at the Junction Hotel. 15 hashers not taking to the trail should have set off alarm bells right from the beginning.

The runners set-off like Indian Runner Ducks onto the trail. The start of the trail had Tinkerbell running several "False Trail" for the runners. It soon became apparent that the hare did not weight himself down carrying excess chalk, as the markings became far and few between. Even when there was an arrow, the direction it was pointing did not necessarily indicate the intended trail. Arrows were at 45 degrees to cover all options. Similar to bus drivers who don't know where they are going.

The runner's trail being check backed onto the walker's trail without clear indication who was on which trail, caused confusion for all. Tinkerbell had several whinges about this.

We ran on every second street along Ipswich Road. Perhaps next year, we will run the odd numbers.

The circle was held in the carpark behind the restaurant – from where Swami Gupta made an appearance to address his adoring mob. Swami was upset that his Indian-Australian brothers were prohibited from returning to Australia; while the Aussie cricket team was given special preferences. He then suddenly noticed gathered in our midst Steve Smith, Michael Slater, David Warner, and Mitch Starc. He called these players out for a tongue lashing and special Covid-19 vaccination. A Google search of Swami Gupta comes up with images of attractive women – why didn't he have them with him, on the night??

When Swami was giving the Covid-19 injections, it was heard that Multiple commented – "Tinkerbell has the cutest arse!!"

On Ice:

LAP – forgetting to bring the monkey t-shirt to the circle,

Luftwaffe – having an overspend on his trip to Cairns,

Swami Gupta – making an unannounced appearance and upstaging the Monk, and

Shitbags – getting drunk at a golf game and not remembering what happened and not having Even Optus there to help correctly add up his golf strokes.

Boxa reintroduced the bed pan down-down receptacle, and Shitbags as SOTW was the first to receive it.

Run/Walk: 10 but no-one gets a perfect score, so I took 1 off leaving 0. Then I thought, effort for turning up on the correct night – 1 and flicking the horrors of the run/walk onto Luftwaffe – 1 and providing beer at dinner – $0.9 = 2.9$

Circle: Swami Gupta – 9; Monk – 5 = average of 7

Food: Unsure – did not attend. Royal Screw gave them a glowing review prior to the run.
