

BAREBUMS BIRTHDAY RUN
TRADE COAST HOTEL (FORMERLY " THE PINK ")

Arrived at hotel carpark to find approx. 30 hashmen in various types and colours of face masks ready to take on the trail set by Barebum (looking like someone out of deliverance movie due to non shaving because of a medical condition), Snappy and LAP. were minor contributors to the setting of the run.

After a short speech by the new GM, FINGERS about how things were going to be bigger and better this year BLAH BLAH BLAH.the hares were called upon to explain the run.

Not much info was forthcoming, Snappy had no idea, LAP mumbled something about Hills, water and a train line and the pack headed off in opposite directions.

Cannot report on the run but INSPECTOR REX informed the group upon his return that it was good apart from the dangerous section involving the rail line.

The walking trail headed off in the opposite direction towards the Pinkenba war memorial then on to the bike track and after a couple of loops crossed Main Myrtle town Road into Marine Drive Rd. to a checkback.

This sent us to a 2 way check at Lomandra Drive. After about a klm down Lomandra Dr. the trail turned left onto a gravel road which eventually connected with Serpentine St., into McBride St., and Neill St. into the back of the pub.

The Circle was a lively affair with FINGERS advising the horde they should ensure they have a near full can so as not to go dry before the end of the circle.

There were 3 contenders for SHIT OF THE WEEK, Verbal, Boxa and Irish Joke.

Verbal for depositing funds for the over 60 lunch into the wrong account, Boxa for some serious indiscretions and groping of our female entertainment at the AGPU

In the end it was no contest with Irish winning SOTW for his total disregard of Hash Rules and Cone Of Silence by divulging sensitive information to Outsiders including WOMAN !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Shame on you Irish.

The ON ON was what we have come to expect from BAREBUM on his Birthday run.

Fantastic Food and Drinks supplied and enjoyed in great company.

Many thanks again BAREBUM for a great night.

First run of the new committee and already No.1 contender for Run Of The Year

RUN10/10

CIRCLE 10/10

ON ON 10/10

ON ON BAGS^{mm}□