POST LOCKDOWN FREE FOOD AND DRINK

Possibly nothing inspires a hashman more than the prospect of free food and drink. So let's say that a larger group than normal made the trek to McDowall.

A long and hilly 5.4km of walk was laid out to make us earn our gifts. But not before what seemed like half an hour at the traffic lights. The walk and run bifurcated, crossed over one another and linked again to allow the runners another few km exercise.

In the absence of 2 years worth of Monks and Vice Monks, digging back into the distant past almost further than he could remember, GM FINGERS called on the next eligible and illustrious PUSHUP to head proceedings. After a few characteristic mumble fuck whats he strode forward and grabbed the baton like he had never let it go. Charges? Who cares..

Thanks MU for the home prepared pizza, garlic bread and beer.
